Security in Digitized Production:
A Collaborative Demonstration

Interoperability | Security | Collaboration

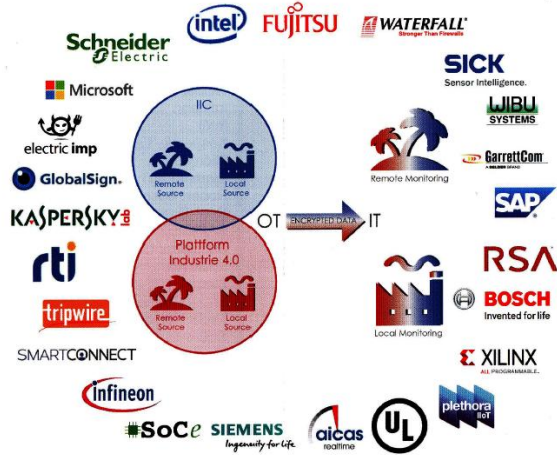

The Industrial Internet Consortium and Platform Industrie 4.0 are hosting a joint demonstration in their respective Hannover Messe booths. This demonstration highlights Industrial Internet security, interoperability and collaboration.

This ground-breaking security demonstration is live in Hall 8 of Hannover Messe, in other stands and halls throughout the Messe, in other parts of Germany and in other parts of the world.

INDUSTRIE 4.0

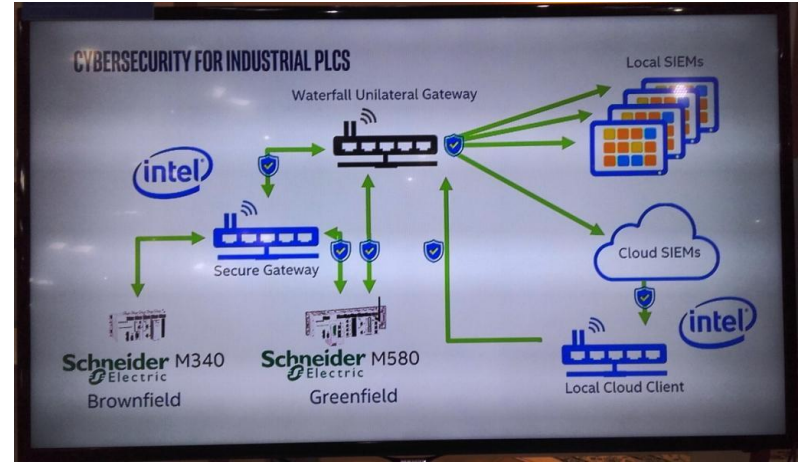

THE JOINT SECURITY DEMO SIMPLIFIED
And the many participating companies:

The demonstration highlights multiple industrial demos consolidated into an end-to-end interaction of industrial security systems using products and technologies available today that are integrated into existing systems without disrupting operations. Security events are shared across the ecosystem, letting each member in the value chain see all security events relevant to them.
